City leaders announce All In Credit Union coming to Elba

by Linda Hodge, Editor

During the Elba City Council meeting held Monday evening, April 8, council members received more good economic news for the city as it was announced All In Credit Union plans to soon open a branch in the city.

According to Mayor Tom Maddox, All In Credit Union has purchased the building that formerly housed the Wells Fargo bank branch in Elba.

"They are coming to Elba," the mayor said in reference to All In Credit Union.

Delving a bit deeper into the news, city clerk Sally Bane said All In is first looking at installing an ITM [Interactive Teller Machine] and an ATM [Automated Teller Machine] while renovations are underway inside the building. She said the credit union would later this year open the inside portion of the business for in-person transactions.

Also, city officials noted in a work session prior to the council meeting Monday night that All In Credit Union officials are interested in leasing out portions of the building at 402 Collier Street as they renovate the inside of that building.

Council member Jane Brunson noted she had recently realized that Wells Fargo had removed the ATM it left operational at the 402 Collier Street address when the bank closed. She inquired as to whether there was any news on Wells Fargo putting in another ATM in the city for its customers, and Bane said work is underway in the parking lot at the Shoppes at Taylor Crossing [Alabama Hwy. 203] to construct a stand-alone ATM for Wells Fargo customers. There was no further information, however, on when that ATM might be finished and ready to use.

Also, during Monday evening's council meeting, Mayor Maddox said he had received the 'Project Development Agreement' from Jack's to proceed with that business project. City attorney Bart Boothe said if the numbers are correct in the agreement, the next step would be to hold a public hearing on the matter before the council votes to approve the agreement. Council members discussed holding the public hearing on Monday, April 22, at 5 p.m.

THREE VEHICLE WRECK REPORTED TUESDAY AFTERNOON AT CURTIS COMMUNITY INTERSECTION...The U.S. Hwy. 84/Alabama Hwy. 141 intersection in the Curtis community of Coffee County became the sight of a three-vehicle collision Tuesday afternoon, April 9, around 2:30 p.m. Upon arrival on scene, emergency responders found that all three vehicles involved in the wreck sustained significant damage. Reportedly, there was a total of five people involved, and two were transported to area hospitals to receive medical treatment. One of the two injured was airlifted from the scene while the other was transported by ambulance. According to officials, this is the fourth accident at the intersection already for 2024. The photo above shows heavy damage to the front end of one of the three vehicles involved in the wreck. No further details were available as of press time Tuesday evening.

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Coffee County Board of Education members voted to approve several personnel matters recommended by Superintendent Kelly Cobb last Thursday evening, April 4, during the board's regular monthly meeting.

Among those approvals was the employment of Shasta Barron as assistant principal for Kinston

Additional hires made for next school year included Haleigh Dewberry, teacher at New Brockton Elementary; Samantha Gilbert, teacher at New Brockton Elementary;

Also, the board approved the transfer of teacher Rose Oswald from New Brockton Elementary to Zion Chapel Elementary for the 2024-2025 school year.

Regarding support personnel, Haylee Hutchison, was approved for employment as an auxiliary Pre-K teacher at New Brockton Elementary for the 2024-2025 school year.

At the conclusion of the meeting, board members were treated to a sample of the CNP department's new "Moo-Brew" beverage that is now being offered in the lunchroom of the schools. This is made possible through a grant the school system received.

Coffee County board member Brian McLeod makes a "Moo-Brew" drink to taste-test following the school board meeting last Thursday evening. Assisting McLeod in making his drink is Coffee County Schools CNP director Betsy Wood. Moo-Brew is a new drink offered in the lunchrooms at the Coffee County Schools.

Cuzin Lou Lou's Tales from Yonder

Editor's Note: Cuzin Lou Lou's tales are to be enjoyed as a light-hearted form of Southern expression

Cuzin Lou Lou and Sister hit the road last weekend for a little sister trip, and it was a fun time for both; however, Sister may have had the most fun when she located some outlet stores to do some shopping!

Lou Lou will admit the first store visited had a really good sale going on, and even she made a purchase of a new wallet. Sister bought a new purse and a new wallet while in the store.

The next stop was at a store that Lou Lou doesn't really care for so she sat on a bench outside while Sister went in to check out the deals. Well..Lou Lou should have known the result was not going to be good when the time kept ticking by and Sister was not exiting the store.

Lou Lou was almost ready to go inside and drag Sister out when she finally emerged - with an extremely large shopping bag in hand.

Sister made sure to purchase a new throw for Lou Lou while she was in there to help calm the reaction to exactly how much she had spent! Lou Lou is still not quite sure exactly how much that was because all Sister would say when she came out of the store is "I think I need to be done now."

Even though there were more stores she probably wanted to visit, Sister chose to stay away...that can only mean one thing! The folks at Vera Bradley were extremely happy to see Sister come visit Saturday afternoon.

Now, Lou Lou is waiting to see if Sister will actually ever use all the new goodies she purchased last week or if later this year there is a "for sale" post on social media of items indicating "barely used". It is definitely a possibility!

Until next time...God Bless and Keep Smiling!

Elba City Council affirms recent zoning board recommendation

The Elba City Council held a public hearing Monday evening, April 9, to hear public input regarding a rezoning request for a parcel of land, located at 0 Hickman Avenue.

Two people spoke at the hearing - one a nearby resident to the property in question and the other a local attorney representing the family wishing to sell the property. The request was to rezone from R-2 to B-2 to allow for a billboard to be constructed on the property.

During the Elba City Council meeting held after the public hearing, the city council voted to affirm a recent decision from the Elba Zoning Board to deny the rezoning request. Mayor Tom Maddox said the main reason the zoning board recommended the denial was to avoid the perception of "spot" zoning.

Allan Rodriguez was sworn-in Friday, March 15, to serve the remainder of the current municipal term as District One Councilman for the Town of New Brockton. The oath of office was administered by Coffee County Probate Judge Jodee R. Thompson. Also, pictured is Councilman Rodriguez's wife.

The Luncheon Pilot Club of Enterprise recently presented a check to the Boys and Girls Club of Enterprise to support their ongoing service to the children in this area. Pictured are Director Sherrell Doby and LPCE President Debbie Shelton.

Heath Wyrosdick, Funeral Director/Embalmer

Hayes Funeral Home

Our Family Serving Your Family Since 1934

Who should be with me in a pre-need funeral arrangement meeting?

There are many benefits to planning a funeral in advance. For most families, planning a funeral at the time of death is stressful and time-consuming. By planning your own funeral as much as possible in advance, you free your family during their time of grief. You can also potentially save some money by planning in advance because you may be able to lock in lower costs that will go up as time goes on.

If you do decide you want to plan in advance you may choose to make pre-need arrangements. This means that you will decide on and pay for many of the funeral products and services in advance. When you do this, you enter into a contract with a particular funeral provider. From there, you pay for the services upfront or possibly in installment payments.

If you choose to go the pre-need route, then you will make those arrangements at the location of the funeral provider. This meeting is usually called a pre-need conference or arrangement conference.

The first thing to do is sit down and think about things beforehand. While you certainly do not need to make all your decisions before the arrangement conference, it can help give you a sense of what your wishes are.

It is often comforting to take someone else with you to the arrangement conference. You may want to take a trusted family member who knows you well, knows your preferences, and also has knowledge of your financial situation. It can also be helpful to have a family member with you so that they will be fully aware of your choices. However, keep in mind that this is your funeral and the decisions to be made are fully yours. If you feel that a family member will try to sway you towards something you don't want to do, it is best to have the meeting without them. The funeral director will listen to your wishes and record them.

Once you have your meeting, don't be afraid to ask to take the contract home to review it. Make sure the payment terms are affordable for you and favorable. If you have a lawyer or financial advisor you can also have them look over the contract.

Pre-planning is a wonderful way to show your love and support for your family. If you have any questions about pre-planning or how to get started, contact your funeral director.

Our number one grandson Lawson went to an air show in Montgomery over the weekend, and while he admitted the stunts of the Blue Angels was ‘pretty cool,’ I think he probably enjoyed the food trucks just as much. Hey, teenage boys need food to grow!

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers will hang up their cleats before the high school baseball playoffs get started, but they didn’t seem to mind last week as they swept a pair of doubleheaders on the road and are now officially on a winning streak. The Tigers made it look easy in all four wins over Daleville and Houston County, and their success was the combination of youth and experience coming together as eighth-grader Powell Bane and ninth-grader Easton McKelvy had big weeks, and joined with seniors Ty Sieving and Colin Arnold to open the month of April with four straight wins. The success of a team is always judged by its record. However, this team has grown step by step over the season and now appears to be playing its best baseball of the season.

 The Elba Lady Tigers battled 3A Pike County to an eight-inning tie after the umpires chose to go to the house, but still remained undefeated as they posted three wins to go with the tie and are off to one of their best starts in years. One game that stood out for all the wrong reasons was a 12-2 win over Pleasant Home in which two Lady Tigers had to be taken to the hospital, another player passed out and five players were hit by pitches, which resulted in two players going to the doctor the next day for x-rays. All the walking wounded were back in the line-up by the end of the week, but the game proved that at times even softball is a contact sport.

 It was another busy week for area teams in both baseball and softball as both seasons head toward he final turn. In baseball, New Brockton appeared to solve its recent woes with wins over G.W. Long and Pike County, and have their sights set on post-season play, while Kinston upped its winning streak to seven games, and in the process, posted an impressive road win over Brantley; Zion Chapel continued to play hard for all seven innings, but saw its losing streak reach three games; and, Brantley wrapped up its area title and will now begin to focus on even bigger goals that still lay ahead. Over on the softball field, Kinston ran its winning streak to eight games and appears ready to make a roll into the post-season, while Brantley wrapped up its area title and continued to be dominant against teams in its own class; Zion Chapel ran its winning streak to six games as it continued to add pages to the Lady Rebels softball history book; and, New Brockton saw its losing streak reach five games, but is much better than its record shows and can surprise anybody .

 Former Elba Tiger offensive coordinator Al Gilmore officially began his tenure as the new head football coach at Geneva County last week and look for the excitement level to rise and the players to get on board as the enthusiastic coach takes the reins for the first time as a head coach at the high school level. Coach Gilmore was instrumental in getting players to join the football program at Elba High during his years with the Tigers, and will no doubt get the players out for football down at Hartford. I think it was time for Coach Gilmore to get the chance to be the head man at a program, and also think he will surprise folks with how quickly he changes the mind set at Geneva County and turns the Bulldogs into winners both on and off the field.

 In closing.... Alabama’s loss to defending national champ UConn wasn’t really a surprise to anyone in the world of college basketball. However, the fact the Crimson Tide actually advanced to the Final Four was a story in itself as the team overcame injuries to key players and a lack of experience in the post-season to win four straight games before being ousted. I have never really been a big fan of Coach Nate Oats, but he proved to me during the post-season that he can indeed be successful at the highest level and now must agree that Bama has one of the best coaches in the nation. To make it to the ‘Final Four’ in both basketball and football in the same year is quite a feat, and there is no doubt that the overall sports program at Alabama is still at ‘high Tide!’

Lady Tigers tie Bulldogs 8-8

The Elba Lady Tigers rallied from a 6-1 fifth inning deficit to pull even in the seventh, but failed to pull out the win against Pike County as the game ended with the score tied at 8-8, after eight innings of play.

A'Lyric Whitfield walked and came around to score in the third inning to put Elba on the scoreboard, but left the bases loaded in the inning and then stranded two more base runners in the fourth and watched as Pike County opened up a 6-1 lead heading into the sixth inning.

A walk to Alayvia Stinson and a bunt single by Kaleigh Russell sparked a sixth inning rally for the Lady Tigers, and while Elba again left the bases loaded, Destinee Tidwell came through with a clutch two-run double and Mary Brooklyn O'Neal adding an rbi single to cut the deficit to 6-4.

The Lady Tigers trailed 8-4 heading into the top of the seventh, but Russell and Payton Parks both drew one-out walks to keep the inning alive, and a walk to A'Lyric Whitfield loaded the bases. Danielle Tidwell followed with a three-run triple and then crossed the plate on a wild pitch as Elba completed the comeback and pulled even at 8-8.

Mary Brooklyn O'Neal blanked Pike County in its final two trips to the plate, but the Lady Tigers were unable to push across the winning run and were forced to settle for the 8-8 tie.

Lady Tigers win 12-2 in area

The Elba Lady Tigers continued their success against area foes last Tuesday night with a 12-2 win over Pleasant Home.

Elba failed to score in the opening inning, but bounced back in the second thanks to a pair of walks, a hit batter and two wild pitches to take a 2-0 lead.

A one-out single by Ana Caldwell and a two-out triple by Ayrika Caldwell sparked a 3-run outburst in the third inning as the Lady Tigers upped their lead to 5-0. However, Pleasant Home rallied in the fourth and plated two runs to cut the lead to 5-2.

Elba was still on top 5-2 heading to the bottom of the fifth, but exploded for seven runs to end the game due to the ten-run rife with the scoreboard reading

An rbi triple by Ayrika Caldwell ignited the outburst, while Alayvia Stinson added a two-run single and Danielle Tidwell delivered a two-run double as the Lady Tigers claimed their second win in as many days on the diamond.

Florala pulled even at 2-2 in the second inning, but Elba regained the lead at 3-2 in the third when Ana Caldwell singled and promptly stole second, third and home.

The Lady Tigers carried the slim 3-2 lead into the fourth. However, they plated 10 runs in their half of the inning to open up a big 13-3 advantage. A leadoff single by Alayvia Stinson sparked the fourth inning fireworks, while

Applications should be submitted on or before May 31, 2024. This year the scholarships have been named in memory and honor of Daryl Crittenden and Charlie R. Sconiers. Been There Done That Celebrate Recovery is a Christ-centered program that helps free people from addictions. The program is used in thousands of churches worldwide. Broader in scope than other multi-step programs, Celebrate Recovery recognizes that everyone has hurts and habits that must be addressed. While one person may not struggle with a certain type of temptation as another would, we all face temptation. One temptation for everyone to beware of is a periodic desire to shake our fists towards Heaven and cry, "You don't know what it's like down here!"

God does know what it's like. He has never been an absentee God. In Jesus we see clearly what has always been reality: God's willingness to suffer alongside of, and on behalf of, those created in His image. Jesus never sinned, but He certainly felt the stress of every temptation.

Celebrate Recovery offers the healing freedom of being accepted as a fellow struggler. That's valuable, but there is something more valuable yet: as Jesus "learned...obedience by the things which he suffered," so can we. - V.E.
